

Alan Partin

Alan is Vice President Client Relationships for PRISM International, Inc., a WBENC-certified, full-service provider of innovative and proven consulting services, training programs and products fro leveraging diversity & inclusion, increasing cross cultural effectiveness and preventing harassing & discriminatory behaviors. Alan and PRISM serve 1 million plus employees in over 160 organizations in nineteen countries on six continents. Alan develops and nurtures client relationships providing customized diversity and cross cultural solutions that best meet their needs.

Alan's career experience spans Finance, Healthcare, Insurance, Security, Sales and Marketing. He is experienced and skilled in listening to and understanding to his clients' individual needs. He is adept at recommending and providing customized, personalized service and real solutions that work. Alan's client portfolio includes John Deere, General Dynamics Land Systems, Ace Hardware, Intel, Sunoco and Simon Property Group.

Prior to his role at PRISM, while working in the banking industry, Alan discovered the bottom line impact that can be achieved by leveraging a diverse workforce to meet marketplace goals. By starting a Latin sales force on the emerging Latin market, he was able to increase his company's sales by 20%. Because of Alan's hard work and determination, he was appointed to the company's President's Advisory Board.

Active in his Central Florida community of Sanford, Florida, Alan has participated in numerous Walk-A-Thons to assist in the awareness of Multiple Sclerosis and Muscular Dystrophy. He has also been active in youth assistance programs such as the Seminole County Fire Safety for Kids Program and business organizations such as the American Marketing Association.

Alan may be reached by calling 1.888.997.7476 or by emailing Alan@PrismInternational.com.